

Why work at Theatre Severn?

We are a large team of people who all have one shared interest- a love of Theatre!

Working as a front of house steward involves lots of different work- primarily we are there for our patron's health and safety, their comfort and enjoyment during their visit to us. Every day is different when you work as a steward- it includes bar work, selling ice creams and confectionary, taking tickets and generally helping our customers.

This job is ideal to supplement another job, studies, hobbies, travelling or anything else!

Along the way you'll get to learn how to pull a pint, you might see a piece of Theatre you've never seen before, make some new friends and generally have a good time whilst working! It is a great atmosphere when you work as our audience are there to enjoy themselves, and we are there to help them to do this!
